

I would like to see the Morse Code 5 words-per minute kept as a requirement for Amateur Radio operations. I believe that this is part of our “heritage” in this hobby; all the other countries that did away with this requirement were not part of the historical foundation of radio. I also believe that lowering the skill level to obtain such privileges hurts the art and professionalism of Amateur Radio.